A LETTER FROM THE FOUNDER

Dear Policy Owner/Insured:

As Founder & CEO of Welcome Funds, I would personally like to thank you for considering our team to serve as your personal representative in the secondary market for life insurance. We understand that you have choices in this process and we appreciate the opportunity to represent you. We also know that selling your life insurance policy is an important financial decision for you and your family, and our goal is to ensure that you are able to make this choice with confidence.

Welcome Funds is the one of the oldest and largest life settlement brokers in the United States and has assisted thousands of Americans since our founding in 2000. As your broker, we work diligently to represent your best interests during the entire transaction, from initial evaluation through the closing process. Our procedures consist of the following:

- Initial evaluation and review to determine eligibility;
- Evaluation Request assessment and processing;
- Medical records requests and life insurance policy verifications;
- Obtaining independent third party life expectancy report(s);
- Submission to authorized and/or state licensed secondary market buyers of life insurance policies;
- Best execution negotiations via an auction process in an effort to maximize the sales price of your policy;
- Closing services including contract review and assistance with closing contingency requirements.

In addition to the traditional procedure and lump sum cash settlements offered by the secondary market, we are also able to provide alternative options that you may want to consider, depending on your personal needs:

- 1. Expedited Bid Process for situations that require a fast turnaround time due to the possibility of a lapse or a personal financial crisis;
- 2. Retained Death Benefit Offers an offer to purchase the policy that includes a beneficiary of your choice maintaining some death benefit, with the buyer paying all future premiums. This can include a combination of a cash payout & retaining a portion of the death benefit. This option may not be available in all states or for all policies; or
- 3. Life Insurance Loans if you are interested in a loan using your life insurance policy as collateral, we can also work with multiple lending firms to secure financing. A loan option may not be available in all states or for all policies.

Please be sure to inform your advisor or your case manager if you would like to consider any of the above options. We would also like to recommend that you discuss the tax consequences of selling your life insurance policy with a tax advisor, as it is likely a taxable event, unless the insured qualifies for a viatical settlement or long-term care exemption in compliance with IRS codes. Additionally, we have attached a brief brochure for your review issued by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners to provide an unbiased, independent description of selling policies in the secondary market.

As a reminder, you are under no obligation to sell your life insurance policy, in fact, if you need your coverage and can afford to maintain it, we highly recommend that you do so!

Once again, thank you for allowing us the opportunity to help you reach your financial goals and to represent you in the secondary market for the potential sale of your life insurance policy.

Sincerely,

John M. Welcom Founder & CEO

Defining the Terms

A life settlement is the sale of a life insurance policy to another person or company in return for a cash payment of less than the full amount of the death benefit.

A life settlement provider is the person or company that becomes the new policy owner in return for a payment made to the seller. The life settlement provider becomes the policy owner, must pay any premiums that are due, and eventually collects the full amount of the death benefit from the insurance company.

A life settlement broker is the person or company who represents the seller of the policy and can comparison shop for life settlement offers. The buyer pays the broker a commission if the sale is completed.

Additional Questions to Consider

- · Do I still need life insurance protection?
- Will I qualify for a new life insurance policy in the future?
- If I sell my policy, how will they decide how much cash I get?
- If I sell my policy, will there be any costs I have to pay?
- If I sell my policy, will the money be put into an escrow account? If so, who will the escrow agent be? Does state law require the agent to be licensed?
- Is my policy an employer or other group policy? If so, do I need their permission to sell it?
- If I sell my policy, who will be the legal owner?
- Is the viatical settlement provider I plan to sell to allowed to do business in my state?
- · After I sell my policy, can the buyer resell it?

Consumer Alert

- If you're asked to invest in or buy a life settlement, contact your state insurance department to learn more about the issues and risks.
- If you don't have a life-threatening illness and you're interested in selling your life insurance policy, contact your state insurance department for more information.
- If you've been contacted by someone who wants you to buy a policy and then sell it immediately, contact your state insurance department.
 This activity may be considered fraudulent and the parties may be prosecuted by the appropriate authorities.

Selling Your Life Insurance Policy: Understanding Life Settlements

Check with Your State

Your state insurance department may regulate the purchase of life settlements. Contact them for a copy of those regulations.

Understanding Life Settlements

A life settlement is the sale of a life insurance policy to a third party. The owner of a life insurance policy sells it for a cash payment that is less than the full amount of the death benefit. The buyer becomes the new owner and/or beneficiary of the life insurance policy, pays all future premiums and collects the full amount of the death benefit when the insured dies.

People decide to sell their life insurance policies for many reasons. When an individual with a terminal or chronic illness sells his or her life insurance policy, that is known as a viatical settlement. When an individual who does not have a terminal or chronic illness sells a policy for other reasons, including changed needs of dependents, wanting to reduce premiums, and cash for meeting expenses, that is known as a life settlement.

A life settlement may or may not be the right choice for you. Your state insurance department, along with the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, is concerned that many consumers may not fully understand life settlements. Please continue reading before making any decisions.

Get All of the Facts

Before you enter into any life settlement transaction, you should:

- Contact your life insurer to learn about all of your possible options under your policy.
- Contact a life settlement broker or life settlement provider for information about life settlements.
- Consult with your own financial advisor who knows your personal financial needs. Be sure to ask about tax and other financial consequences if you sell your policy.
- Contact your state insurance department for information about current laws that may protect you.

Consider All Your Options

- Find out if you have any cash value in your life insurance policy. You may be able to use some of the cash value to meet your immediate needs and keep your policy in force for your beneficiaries without having to sell it to a third party. You may also be able to use the cash value as security for a loan from a financial institution.
- Review other sources of cash that may meet your financial needs at a lower cost than a life settlement.

Other Considerations

- Contact a professional tax advisor. Find out the tax implications. Proceeds are only tax-free under certain circumstances.
- Know that your creditors could claim the proceeds.
- Find out if you'll lose any public assistance benefits such as food stamps or Medicaid if you get a cash settlement.
- Know that you must provide certain medical and personal information to third parties who will be paid the proceeds from your policy upon your death. These third parties may sell your policy and pass along your medical and personal information to other individuals.

Consumer Tips

- Understand how the process works and when the different phases will happen.
- Decide whether to sell your policy directly to a life settlement provider or go through a life settlement broker who will do the comparison shopping for you.
- If you don't use a life settlement broker, comparison shop on your own.
- · You don't have to accept any life settlement offer.
- Check all application forms for accuracy, especially information about your medical history.
- You must be truthful in your answers to application questions.
- Make sure the life settlement provider agrees to put your settlement proceeds in escrow with an independent party or financial institution to make sure your funds are safe during the transfer.
- Find out if you have the right to change your mind about the life settlement offer after you get the proceeds. In many states, you have the right to change your mind for a certain period of time. If you have that right, you'll have to return the money you were paid and premiums the buyer paid.
- Understand whether buyers may learn your identity when they buy your policy, and whether they will know certain medical and personal information about you, such as your address and life expectancy.
